

K-Love Radio FM 89.5 in El Paso, informs us of local church activities and concerts. In a country where more programming like Howard Stern becomes more available, family oriented programming is a necessity for people who care about morality and high standards. This is an encouraging family Christian radio, and there is nothing else like it in El Paso. Sincerely, S. Loeb